

GRAND FALL OPENING!

THE COMBINATION TO THE FRONT. A Grand Review and Inspection of Our New Fall Purchases Takes Place Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, October 4, 5 and 6.

The entire community requested to be present. Every line exhibited will bear the most fastidious criticism. This has been no blind venture, as well-directed plans have been laid to make this par excellence. We first mention each and every department, and then place before you a line of souvenirs that speak for us in silent words, SUCCESS.

The Last.
Only one more of the delightful excursions to the Caverns of Luray will be run on Wednesday next, the 29th, and after the season has closed many will regret not having visited this great natural curiosity.

This is positively the last excursion, and will be run with all the comfort and enjoyment that went to make these excursions so popular during the past three seasons. There is no crowding or confusion whatever, all the seats on the train being reserved, so that holders of coupons find their car and seat without the least trouble. The weather cannot and does not interfere, as the excursion is at all times under cover. The interior of the cavern is illuminated with electric light, making all the formations distinct as under the rays of the sun. The special train will leave R. & O. depot on Wednesday next, September 29, at 8:30 a. m., and after a most delightful return home at 9 p. m.

The route by train is through a delightful country, made famous by historic events and beautiful in natural scenery, making the whole trip one of exceptional interest and enjoyment.

The fare for the round trip is $3.50, which includes reserved seat on car and admission to caverns. Remember this is the last. Positively the last. Wednesday, September 29, 8:30 a. m. sharp.

John Rudden's Extensive Installation Houses.
Persons contemplating buying their fall and winter stoves, ranges, heaters, furniture, carpets, etc., etc., should not fail to visit these Mammoth Installation Houses, at 930 and 932 Seventh Street Northwest. His establishment is filled to its utmost capacity with just such a class of house-furnishing articles that is needed in every family in Washington. Mr. Rudden is selling this vast stock cheaper than any other house in the city. You can make your own terms at the lowest prices. Remember the Nos. 930 and 932 Seventh Street, west side. His goods are of the best quality, and his prices and terms are the easiest.

Before You Buy Your Fall Furniture
be sure you call on John Rudden and see his immense stock of stoves, ranges, and heaters, furniture and carpets. He is selling cheaper than any man in town. You can make your own terms on any of his goods. Remember the number, 930 and 932 Seventh St. n. w.

An Historic Mansion.
The mansion on K street, fronting Franklin Square, formerly the residence of the late Secretary Stanton, was sold on Wednesday next, September 29, at 8:30 a. m., and after a most delightful return home at 9 p. m.

The route by train is through a delightful country, made famous by historic events and beautiful in natural scenery, making the whole trip one of exceptional interest and enjoyment.

Prof. Martin's Dancing Academy.

The twenty-eighth annual season of Martin's academy of dancing and deportment will reopen at Masonic Temple, corner of Ninth and F streets, northwest, to-morrow, for the formation of classes. The first instruction for the season of 1886-7 commences on Tuesday, October 5. The Professor has just returned from Paris, where he has been visiting to witness the marriage of his daughter. During his absence the hall has been thoroughly renovated and refurnished with the most modern improvements and will hereafter be under the entire control of the Professor. It is not necessary to speak of the Professor's ability as an accomplished instructor in the beautiful and graceful art of dancing, because he has been teaching with great success for many years, and his pupils have won many prizes in this city during the last twenty-eight years.

An Interesting Point.
The charge against George Holmes of keeping two bars under the same roof on one license came up before the Police Court today for trial. Mr. Holmes procured a license for No. 603 Pennsylvania Avenue. This house extends back to B street. He has an entrance to his bar-room from B street, and the police charge him with keeping an unlicensed bar on B street, because he has established a bar on that street without conforming to the requirement of securing the approval of the majority of the property owners there. Mr. E. Cahill appeared for Mr. Holmes. The Court will give his decision in a day or two.

Hay Fever
is a type of catarrh having peculiar symptoms. It is attended by an inflamed condition of the lining membrane of the nostrils, tear-ducts and throat, affecting the lungs. An acrid mucus is secreted, the discharge is accompanied with a burning sensation. There are severe spasms of sneezing, frequent attacks of headache, watery and inflamed eyes. Ely's Cream Balm is a remedy that can be depended upon. Fifty cents at drug stores; by mail, registered, 60 cents. Ely Brothers, drugists, Oswego, N. Y.

September's Weather.
The meteorological summary for September, issued by the Signal Office, shows that the mean barometer was 30.125, the mean temperature 69.3. For September, 1885, it was 66.1; 1884, 71.7; 1883, 65.1; 1882, 69.1. The highest temperature was 91.2, on the 28th; the lowest was 49.5, on the 24th. The monthly range was 41.7. The prevailing direction of the wind was northeast. The highest velocity was 21 miles an hour on the 12th, when it was northwest. Rain fell on eight days. There were five clear days, twenty fair days and five cloudy days.

An Irishman was asked for his marriage certificate. He lifted his hat, revealing a large scar on the head, evidently done by a flatiron. "This evidence was to the point. Our certificates are the praises of those who have experienced wonderful cures by the use of Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup."

Honoring Shakespeare's Memory.
A profound respect for the memory and fame of the late William Shakespeare prevented us from witnessing the performance of "Othello" by James Owen O'Connor at the opera-house on Monday night. The remarks of our contemporaries of the press and the expressions of those who were present incline us to the belief that Mr. O'Connor is not a good tragedian, but that he might be a valuable man on a Baltimore saw-mill.—[Venango Spectator.]

Religious Scruples Banished.
"There is something that has preyed heavily on my mind since our engagement, dear," he said, "but I am almost afraid to tell you." "What is it, George?" the young woman asked, anxiously. "I am a somnambulist." "Oh, is that all?" she exclaimed, with a sigh of relief. "I have always been a Methodist myself, but of course when we are made one I shall expect to attend your church."—[London Umpire.]
